GOLETA CENTER 4-H PITCHES IN The Goleta Center 4-H group has contributed $300 to the Depot Fund. The money was raised by selling hot dogs and Cokes at Fairview Shopping Center during the merchant's celebration on July 3rd. All food and supplies were donated by T.G. and Y. (David Raines), Jordano's Inc. (Peter Jordano), Shalhoob Meat Co. (Jack Hufford), County Meat Market, Valley Provisions, Pavlakos Restaurant (Paul Brown), and Rusty's Pizza.

The Fairview merchants also permitted us to hold a short auction on the evening of July 3rd. Over $500 was generated for the project at this event. A hearty thank you to all those who helped make these two fundraising events successful.

RUMMAGE SALE The Fundraising Committee is planning a rummage sale for the month of August. If you have items to donate or can assist with the sale, please contact Phyllis Olsen at 967-8136, weekday afternoons.

FOURTH OF JULY Hope you had a chance to see the Depot Quilt at the July 4th celebration at historic Stow House, as well as to enjoy the other festivities.

Did you see us in the 4th of July Parade? Probably not. We planned to have a Depot Friends entry, but due to a last minute vehicle breakdown (Model A's are like that) we were unable to participate. Even so, thanks very much to Carlo Bottiani, Don Marr and Gene Allen for their efforts in preparing our entry.

DEPOT PENNANT The Depot Project now has its own banner! The 18 foot long canvas standard was the gift of Bob's Canvas Shop and Bill's Sign Shop of Santa Barbara. The beautiful acrylic oil rendition of the depot portrayed on the canvas is the work of Blake Miller, Master's candidate in Public History at UCSB. The banner reads, "SAVE THE DEPOT", and with the support of these kinds of friends we surely will.

CHALLENGE MATCH Santa Barbara Savings has made a contribution of $500 to the project and has challenged all other financial institutions in the area to do the same. Norma Cavalletto of the Hollister Avenue branch of Santa Barbara Savings expects to be able to announce several matching donations in the near future.

NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS STILL NEEDED The Subleasing Committee needs to hear from more nonprofit organizations that are interested in leasing space in the Depot. Our adaptive reuse plan cannot succeed unless additional tenants for the building are found. For further information, consult the first issue of the Dispatch (June 5th) or call Dick Sandow at Mid-State Bank, 967-0451.

DEPOT FRIENDS MEETING There was a meeting of the Friends of the Depot on July 10th. Attendance was light, but the people who did come had a nice time. At the meeting there were lots of old and new slides of the depot which were shown by Ray Baird. There were also many pictures of the depot, as well as the depot quilt, on display.

There is going to be another Friends meeting on Tuesday, August 18th from 7-8:30 pm at the Goleta Library. Please attend if you can and bring along any depot/railroad memorabilia that you might have to share. Depot Committee members are expected to be there if at all possible!!

FUNDING UPDATE George Adams, chairman of the Fundraising Committee, reports that during the last two weeks over $2000 has been raised toward completion of Phase 1 of the project. This means that we are on schedule as far as the October target date for moving the depot is concerned. $31,600 is still needed to complete Phase 1 of the project.

CORRECTION Our apologies to Gene Allen. Gene has been very active finding us new Depot Friends. Last issue we acknowledged his fine work, but attributed it to one of his associates. Sorry, Gene. Thank you and keep up the fine work. Incidentally, Gene is also the builder of the scale model steam locomotives that are frequently displayed at Depot functions.

DEPOT-CROSTIC The answers to the puzzle that appeared in issue #3 of the Dispatch are as follows:

1. Once and future owners of depot site. KELLOGGS
2. Original depot builder. SOUTHERN PACIFIC
3. Goleta depot's new architect. RAY BAIRD
4. An old warning. RAILROAD CROSSING: LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS

DISPATCH This issue of the Dispatch was prepared by Fotoscreen Printing of Goleta. Special thanks to Mr Gettman and his staff for this contribution to the Depot Project.

We are still searching for someone to underwrite our printing costs (about $25 per issue) on a permanent basis. If you have any questions regarding the Dispatch, please call Gary Coombs or Phyllis Olsen at 964-3008, weekdays.
